

Is University of the Pacific in Your Estate Plans?

With a gift in your will or trust, you can give the next generation of deserving students the same opportunities that you had, while supporting the things you are passionate about.

Pacific's Office of Estate and Gift Planning is here to help you create your legacy gift. Many plans offer financial benefits to ensure your gift will make the greatest impact for our University while maintaining security for you and your loved ones.

Turn your dreams into reality and secure a better future for our students, our faculty and our University.
