

- a. Why do you wish to be a Supplemental Instruction (SI) Leader?

- b. Describe your communication, analytical and problem-solving skills - as well as your interpersonal/team-building ability. Are you able to work without close supervision? Explain.

- c. Describe your prior work experiences or co-curricular activities and discuss how these experiences will affect your potential as an SI Leader?

- d. What did you perceive your strengths and weaknesses to be when you started college as a freshman? And how would you use this information to help students in your SI sessions?

- e. Other than the professor who referred you, please provide one additional reference familiar with your scholastic achievement (include their name, title and contact information):

Your signature below indicates you have read and understood the application/employment requirements:

Signature

Date