

Bulk orders/Custom Orders

Need larger amount of one items? Want to purchase specific items that you do not see in the market place? Bon Appetit Staff can order these items for you at no additional cost. Ordering can be done via email or by walking in to the Market Place and speaking with a staff member.

Ordering via email

- Email Resident District Manager, Sia Mohsenzadegan – Sia.Mohsenzadegan@cafebonappetit.com
- List your items you would like to order. Be as specific as possible. Listing any desired brand names, or flavor selections this will ensure that the correct items are ordered. If items on your list are not available, you will be notified.
- Include your name, contact information (phone number preferred)
- Order Monday before 2pm to receive your items Friday before 2pm
- You will contacted via email, when your order is ready to be picked up.
- During the time of pick up please bring your Student ID to purchase your items with your meal plan points.

Ordering in person in the Market Place

- Come prepared with a list of items you would like to order.
- Speak to a staff member regarding your custom order
- Include your name, contact information (phone number preferred)
- Allow for a minimum of 48 hours for your order to arrive.
- You will contacted via email, when your order is ready to be picked up.
- During the time of pick up please bring your Student ID to purchase your items with your meal plan points.

GrubHub Partnership with Pacific

GrubHub can be used to place orders for both delivery and pick-up items from the Market Place and other locations on Campus

- Download the GrubHub app
- Add your university affiliation (University of the Pacific by going to Setting > Payment > Add new Payment
- Search “UOP Campus”
- Select “Market Place”
- Order your items

Deliveries will not go to your individual room/apartment. You will need to meet the delivery person outside of the residence hall.

